

Jesus said to his disciples, "Do not think that I came to abolish the Law and the Prophets. I did not come to abolish, but rather to accomplish. And whoever does and teaches this shall be called "great" in the kingdom of heaven. But whosoever breaks the least of these instructions and teaches so shall be called "least" in the kingdom of heaven. For verily, verily, I say unto you: not one jot, no, not one tittle shall by any means pass from the Law until all be fulfilled. He who has an ear, let him hear. All of the Law and all of the Prophets is summarized in one instruction: You will not eat from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. Blessed is he who understands and fulfils this instruction.
