

Dear Adam,

Do you not remember? Did I not tell you to abstain from eating from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil? Did I not tell you that the consequence of eating from the Tree of Sovereignty is death? Yet look at what you started. Not only have you and your wife which I gave you eaten from it, all of your children have continued to do so, all being required to suffer the same consequence I declared to you in the beginning. Your children have continued to eat from that forbidden tree, hurting and killing each other over it. Everyone covets My place, My place of Sovereignty. They are not content to be subordinate and dependent upon Me, the Real God, the Real Creator, the Real Provider of health and well-being, the Real Father. Why do your children spend their time "honouring" those who sacrifice their lives in defending them against Me, the King? I am the Sovereign One. I am the All-Seeing, the All-Knowing, the All-Powerful. Is it not time for your children to finally realize and accept this? Must they continue to suffer? Is my Kingdom so abhorrent as to be avoided at all cost? Even at the cost of Eden? Have I not invited them to repent and return to Me so that I may finally restore them to the condition you once enjoyed, Adam?
