

Dear Adam,

Four years ago, I sent your children warning that I was preparing to reclaim possession of My Earth. I sent this message by way of social media entitled "Notice of Foreclosure to the Wicked Vinedressers". As always in the past, they disregarded My message. Consequently, I have sent them the present Coronavirus pandemic in order to get their attention. By now, should they not begin to acknowledge Me? How much more affliction must they endure for them to remember that I am only doing what I have already declared to them many, many years ago, Adam, beginning with you? The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil belongs to Me alone. Yet behold! They continually fight to defend their independence from Me.

In the Day of the Great Flood, I eliminated your family, Adam, the whole of humanity, in order to start over with Noah and his three sons. But, even though I remained involved by sending messengers to guide them, look at them today. Adam, have your progeny learned yet? As always, they are obsessed with their pursuit of sovereignty which I shall never concede.

How much are they prepared to suffer before turning to Me, the only hope for their salvation?

Your Creator,
God
