

Dear Eve,

Recently, I've been conversing with my Father. He spent time reasoning with me by reminding me and explaining to me the reality of what transpired over our lifetime. So, Eve, I have come to the decision. I have decided to return to my Father. This was a difficult decision for me. I am tired of seeing you and the children suffer so much. You are welcome to join me in this endeavour. But I must do this.

*Your Loving Husband,
Adam*
