

Eve,

If you remember, in the days of Noah, one of our children, God decided to start over. We stubbornly refused to repent and return to Him, the Legitimate and True Owner of Eden. Therefore He destroyed our family with a flood of water. Today, after sending countless messengers to the children of Noah, God has now sent another flood. The only difference is that this one is gradual, metered. The same outcome is inevitable, but God has decided to give our family time to reason and thoughtfully repent. All of our children are involved in the "great conspiracy" to reject God, my Father. By rejecting what He says, we reject Him. And by claiming to be with Him yet replacing His words and instructions with false words and instructions, we prove to be liars. All those who claim to represent God and claim authority illegitimately are called "false shepherds". And God has clearly warned that He will dismiss all of the false shepherds. He also firmly states that He will establish only one shepherd, His Beloved Servant. I am the first and original prophet of God to all of my children. I am the true legitimate prophet of God to my children. Whoever heeds my words shall make peace with God my Father. Whoever rejects my words remain at war with God my Father. Do like me. Be wise and repent, and come home. There is no life outside of my Father's home.

*Sincerely,
Adam.*
