

Yes Father, I do see it today. But I did not see it in the beginning. But after very much time to learn, I now see it. In being created in Your image, we were created with your mental and spiritual characteristics. Of course, it was not physical, because you are not a physical being. You are spirit. You are a mind. And in creating us, you placed us in a body of flesh which truly places limits upon our minds and our perception of reality.

Endowed with Your nature, like You, we want to be like You, sovereign, not under authority. But upon awakening to our limitations, we are compelled to learn to relate with others endowed with the very same nature. We all want to be sovereign, not under authority. And because we are not endowed with ultimate power like You, o God, we learn to relate with each other through negotiation and trade. And carrying this mindset into our relationship with You, o God, we invent ways of negotiating and trading with You. We turn to sacrifices and offerings thinking that You need something from us. We use this belief to leverage favours from You. It is our way of avoiding surrender for as long as we possibly can. But, as I learned, I could only delay for a limited period of time. In the end, I could no longer negotiate and trade with You. All I had left was myself, my will, which was the only thing You had conceded to me. It was the only thing I jealously kept. I did not realize that upon surrendering myself, I would be rewarded with everlasting life and peace. In my ignorance, I was avoiding happiness. How foolish of me! I can now laugh about it today. But as long as I fought with You, I suffered. Duhhh!!!!
