

My Son,

Please understand something very important about God, my Father. Yes, He wants you. But He does not need you. You need Him. You depend on Him. He does not depend on you. Therefore you need to accept this fact and come to Him, not wait for Him to come to you. If you wait for Him to come to you, you will be waiting forever. Avoid needless waiting and suffering. Come to Him. Ask Him for forgiveness, and ask Him to allow you into His home. He will never ask you for forgiveness nor ask you to enter His home.

Sincerely,
Adam
