

My Son,

Observe how the family has all gone in countless different directions. It is completely broken into fragments. Within these countless fragments are their respective leaders and causes. They call these "nations", "political parties", "religions", "companies", "clubs", "houses", and so on. It is truly a sad thing to behold. I never anticipated such a phenomenon to take place by my leaving God, my Father. In the beginning, I had a vision of a single, beautiful, harmonious family. But, as history has proven, it was not to be. My Father is a jealous God and never allowed me to have a good family separately from Him. This all contributed to my repentance. Sadly, my repentance does not automatically transfer to the family. Each person must repent for one's self.

God spoke through one of my children, Ezekiel, and said that He would fire all the shepherds. And he proceeded to declare:

"And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my loving servant; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

And I YAHWEH will be their God, and my loving servant a prince among them; I YAHWEH have spoken it."

Father, please have mercy on us!

Adam
